

THE SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS

THE GREAT COUNTRY PAPER OF THE WEST.

Is issued Mondays and Thursdays and contains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The Western Union is giving free service on messages relating to the Russian Jewish suffering relief fund.

The First Congregational Church of Christ, Endeavor, will hold a social evening in the church parlors, where a special program relating to missionary work is to be given.

Prof. Lorado Taft, the noted sculptor who lectured in the Y. M. C. A. recently, writes from Chicago to a friend in this city, stating that the report of his lecture as given in the "News" was one of the best he ever had.

The W. C. T. U. ladies will hold their monthly meeting tomorrow at 2:30 p. m., at the residence of Mrs. C. D. Lavery, 140 Tenth East street. This is the last meeting with Mrs. Lavery, as she removes to Tacoma, early in December.

The Utah Indians are creating such a scare in western Colorado, that Gov. McDonald has notified Troop D, of the cavalry squadron of the National Guard to hold itself in readiness for immediate service. If necessary, the other three troops will be called out.

Card invitations are out from the board of trustees of the Congregation B'nai Israel to be present at the celebration in honor of the 50th anniversary of the settlement of the Jews in America, to be held in the temple, Fourth East street, this evening at 8 o'clock.

To accommodate several western states it is found necessary to defer the date of the proposed conference relative to inaugurating the "See America First" project, from Jan. 18, and the special committee of the Commercial club will act on this matter presently.

A new noted painting entitled "Roping a Grizzly," by the cowboy painter Russell, and sold to Senator W. A. Clark for $10,000, has been lithographed handsomely in colors and added to the calendar art world. A prominent local drug company has the right to introduce the same into the Salt Lake field.

The Rocky Mountain lodge No. 3, Knights of Pythias, entertained their friends last night, in Castle hall, with a "63" followed by a program and refreshments. Among the speakers were Dr. C. I. Douglas, Past Grand Chancellor W. R. White and H. P. Johnson. Recitations were given by Mrs. Randolph and John Milton, while Miss Ethel M. Nettleton gave a piano solo.

Mayor Morris laid application yesterday afternoon with the state engineer for 30 second feet of water from Big Cottonwood creek, the water to be diverted immediately below the tail race of the Utah power plant. The diverting works consist of a dam across the channel of the creek, with reinforced concrete conduits leading from it. The length of the diverting channel is to be 35,000 feet.

The Pierpont school pupils gave a clever production of "Hearts and Clubs" last evening, in Barrall hall, before a good attendance. Those taking part in the program were, the Misses A. Ickes, Pamela Burr, Margaret Lawson, Edna Coates, Nora Farrell, May Grover, Agnes Evans, Mattie Mariger and Eva May Mitchell. They were assisted by Mrs. Ella Cumming Weitzel, accompanist, and Miss Janet Williamson as piano soloist.

Zion's Savings Bank and Trust Co., the largest and oldest Savings Bank in Utah, pays 4 per cent interest on any amount from $1 to $5,000. Write to us, Joseph F. Smith, President; George M. Cannon, Cashier.

TENTH WARD FAIR.

Will be Given in Liberty State Hall Four Nights Next Week.

Next week the people of the Tenth ward will give a fair in the Liberty state hall, the festivities commencing Monday night and continuing for four nights, with matinees Wednesday and Thursday for the little folks. All arrangements have been made for a season of religious and patriotic songs, and a large number of attractions, there will be choice musical numbers, dramatic performances, a "Thanksgiving ball and a voting contest for queen."

AMUSEMENTS.

The big Tabernacle concert tonight, when picked voices from 55 city choirs join the Tabernacle choir, will begin at 8:15. Only one price of admission will be charged, 50 cents, to all parts of the house.

At the Theater tonight, "Under Southern Skies," written by Mrs. Parker, also the author of "Way Down East," opens an engagement which runs for three performances.

"A Jolly American Tramp" was played at the Grand last night before a capacity house, and it vastly pleased the crowd in the gallery. When it was jolly it was good, but when it wasn't, it was awful, at least to downstairs patrons, and the jolly spots were remarkably far apart. Some bright specialties introduced by Flo, the heroine at intervals, Happy Jack, the tramp, and Miss Dooley, the Irish servant, when she wasn't needed in the role of the missing wife, livened things up considerably. "The Jolly American Tramp" will continue on duty until the end of the week, with a Saturday matinee.

Hewlett will report on his Denver trip, and on conditions as he finds them at the Colorado capital. The question of a label and button will also be discussed, and one of the many designs suggested will be adopted. "Western Goods for Western People" promises to be the cry that will unite both Colorado and Utah in an effort to bring into the development of the country instead of sending it out for eastern goods.
